IMPERIAL PROBE DROID™

STAR WARS

A tribute to our favourite Star Wars™ droids

Droids are integral to the Star Wars™ universe – to Rebels, Imperials, farmers, merchants, scoundrels and smugglers alike – and they are often iconic characters in their own right. This set lets you build a collectible display version of an Imperial probe droid for your home or office. With authentic details, a built-in stand and information plaque, you can create your own little corner of the sixth planet in the Hoth system.

"We have thousands of probe droids searching the galaxy. I want proof, not leads!" – Admiral Kendal Ozzel

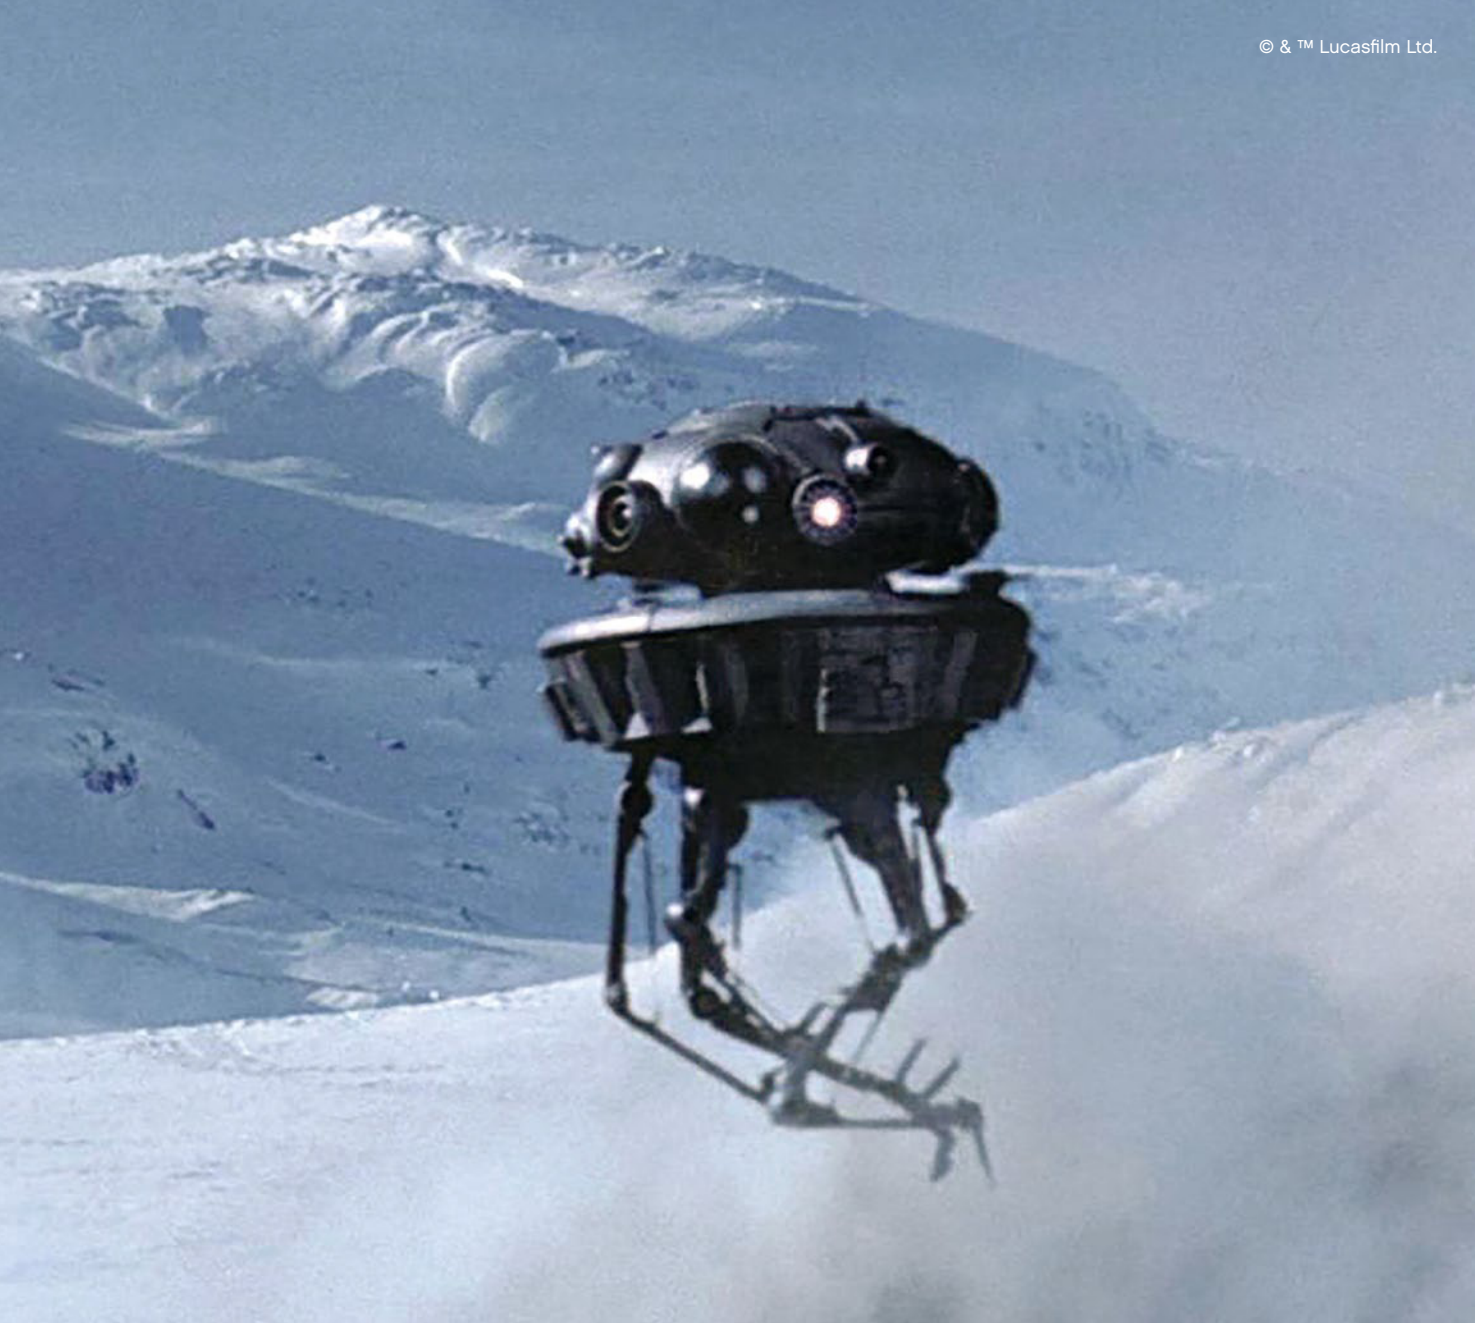

75306 Imperial Probe Droid™

Imperial probe droids are vital multi-purpose tools with sensors, blasters, shields, or even self-destruct mechanisms, for exploration, science, or military missions. In Star Wars: The Empire Strikes Back, they are, of course, part of the Empire's mission to seek out the location of the Rebels. The ominous-looking, multi-armed droids soon expose our heroes and alert Darth Vader. Let the Battle of Hoth begin...

Enjoy building!
